

Murielle Ting, MS, MBA

Biography

Murielle Ting, MS, MBA is KEY's lead project manager focused on regulatory compliance. She has over 25 years of experience in environmental consulting including federal and state regulations. She worked a broad range of projects including Environmental Site Assessments, Coal Fired Power Plants, and Superfund sites. Murielle possesses a keen eye for detail and analysis.

Regulatory Experience

- » CERCLA & RCRA
- » NPDES
- » Environmental Site Assessments (ESA) Phase I & II
- » Dam Operation Permitting
- » Voluntary Cleanup Programs
- » Federal, State & Local Permitting

Services/Areas of Expertise

- » Environmental Permitting
- » Site Assessments
- » Remediation Design
- » Project Management
- » Project Coordination
- » Compliance Reporting & Management
- » Due Diligence
- » Project Procurement & Budgeting
- » Data Analysis & Modeling

Representative Project Examples

Managed 29 laboratory Phase I ESAs for a client property in 15 states, including review & approval for the project team and conducted the Phase I for a site in CO. The project was a requirement for the client to secure additional funding.

RCRA Facility and Superfund NPL Site project management for over 2 decades. Management of operations & maintenance activities associated with a groundwater treatment system, and its related groundwater sampling program, permitting, compliance, and reporting.

Prepared an in-depth Phase I ESA report for a coal-fired power plant being acquired by a client including assistance with due diligence efforts.

Managed ongoing operations and maintenance activities at a former wood treating site including agency reporting, right-of-way agreements, budgeting, and Environmental Covenant and Soil Management Plan preparation assistance.

Led compliance activities for startup of KEY's sister company, FTS. Responsibilities spanned 36 sites in 24 states and included oversight and coordination for the implementation of operations & maintenance, monitoring, reporting, permitting, and compliance activities following RCRA, CERCLA, and state regulatory guidelines.

Licenses and Affiliations:

- » HAZWOPER Training
- » Member of the Society of American Foresters

Education and Skills:

- » MBA, Robert Morris University, 2003
- » MS Civil Engineering, Iowa State University, 1998
- » MS Forestry, Iowa State University, 1994
- » MS Agricultural Engineering, ISAB Polytechnical Institute, France, 1991
- » Trilingual English-French-German